A review was conducted by the board members reviewing together all of the Q & A heard during our interview with the candidate who came in for our interview at 6:15 p.m... After considering the pros & cons that each board member noted during the interview, we moved on to a review of a second application for our maintenance opening.

The board had received a second application from a different individual that was applying for our maintenance job opening. After a lengthy review of the application and all the information presented on the application by the second candidate, we decided that there was not a reason/need to hold a formal interview to consider hiring the second candidate.
